We are grateful for every one of you and pray your worship at Gatlinburg will be uplifting and edifying. Please sign our guestbook in the foyer. When you have opportunity, visit our website at www.gatlinburgchurchofchrist.com.

We will meet at 5 pm today. Jerry Rich, Fred Proffitt, Janet James and Chris Chambers all have birthdays in June. Jim and Dot Merritt, Woody and Shirley Luna and Rod and Brenda Rutherford all have anniversaries this month. All members are invited.

Thanks to Woody Luna, Chris Chambers and all their helpers for the good work being done on the new fellowship room downstairs.

The Sick and Homebound: We were happy to see Dot Merritt at services on Wednesday night. She has completed her most recent series of radiation and is feeling much better. Jim Merritt continues to do well and to enjoy Wellington Place in Sevierville. Dot will be joining him during her period of recovery. Allene Huskey had the cast removed from her leg on Wednesday. It was replaced by a smaller one. A.P. Spurgeon is enjoying being back at home and appears to be feeling some better. Warner King continues his recovery from his stroke. He is subject to anxiety attacks but plans to be with us today. Ruth King will see a specialist this week to ascertain the cause of her severe knee pain. Jerry Weems continues his long recovery from heart surgery. Trish Harbin's mother has alzheimers. We want to keep both Trish and her mother in our prayers. Let's not forget the long list of cancer patients who need our prayers: Michael Bone, Janet Copeland, Eula Dyer, Shauna Heck, Edna Hullender, Edwin Jones, Billy Johnson, James Meadows, Parvin Michael, Norman Montcrief, Jim Tittle and Dennis Sumpter. Please remember the sick and homebound in your prayers along with our elected leaders, our men and women in uniform, and the missionaries and good works supported by this congregation.
